CLINTON B. FISK

HEADS THE PROHIBITION NATIONAL TICKET.

DR. J. A. BROOKS, OF MISSOURI, IN THE SECOND PLACE.

The Platform as Adopted—Brief Biography of the Two Candidates Who Lead the Temperance Ticket—The New National Committee Hold a Midnight Session and Elect Officers—New York Democrats Solid for Thurman for Second Place.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 2.—The Prohibition National convention, after being called to order, Thursday afternoon, appointed a National executive committee, Ohio being represented by B. S. Hinckley and J. A. Dickson, Indiana by Sylvester Johnson and S. J. North, and Kentucky by G. W. Runnels and William Matthews.

GEN. CLINTON B. FISK.

The following platform was adopted:
First—That the manufacture, exportation, transportation and sale of alcoholic beverages shall be made public crimes and punished as such.

Second—That such prohibition must be secured through amendments to our National and state constitutions, enforced by adequate laws adequately supported by administrative authority; and to this end the organization of the Prohibition party is imperatively demanded in state and nation.

Third—That any form of license, taxation or regulation of the liquor traffic is contrary to good government; that any party which supports regulation license or tax enters into alliance with such traffic, and becomes the actual foe of the state's welfare, and that we arraign the Republican and Democratic parties for their persistent attitude in favor of the licensed iniquity, whereby they oppose the demand of the people for prohibition, and, through open complicity with the liquor cause, defeat the enforcement of the law.

Fourth—For the immediate abolition of the internal revenue system, whereby our National government is deriving support from our greatest National vice.

The fifth plank favored tariff reduction, with reasonable protection to manufacturers. The sixth was devoted to civil service purity, based upon personal qualification for office.

Seventh—That the right of suffrage rests on no mere circumstance of race, color, sex or nationality; and that where, from any cause, it has been held from citizens who are of suitable age and mentally and morally qualified for the intelligent ballot, it should be restored by the people, through the legislatures of the several states, on such educational basis as they may deem wise.

Eighth—For the abolition of polygamy and the establishment of uniform laws governing marriage and divorce.

Ninth—For prohibiting all combinations of capital to control and increase the cost of products for popular consumption.

Tenth—For the preservation and defense of the Sabbath as a civil institution without expressing any who religiously observe the same on any other than the first day of the week.

Eleventh—That arbitration is the Christian, wise and economic method of settling National differences, and the same method should by judicious legislation be applied to the settlement of disputes between large bodies of employees and employers; that the abolition of the saloon would remove the burdens, moral, physical, pecuniary and social, which now oppress labor and rob it of its earnings, and would prove to be the wise and successful way of promoting labor reform, and we invite labor and capital to unite with us for the accomplishment thereof; that monopoly of land is wrong to the people, and the public land should be reserved to actual settlers, and that men and women should receive equal wages for equal work.

Twelfth—That our immigration laws should be so enforced as to prevent the introduction into our country of all convicts, inmates of other dependent institutions, and of others physically incapacitated for self-support, and that no person should have the ballot in any state who is not a citizen of the United States.

Thirteenth—Recognizing and declaring that prohibition of the liquor traffic has become the dominant issue in National politics, we invite to full party fellowship all those who on this one dominant issue are with us agreed, in the full belief that this party can and will remove sectional differences, promote National unity and insure the best welfare of our entire land.

There was a lively debate over incorporating the female suffrage plank in the platform, a minority report having been presented against it. The anti claimed that it should be left wholly to the several states. The suffragists carried their point by an overwhelming majority.

In the evening the nomination of candidates took place. When New Jersey presented the name of Gen. Clinton B. Fisk, which was done through its chairman, Judge Morrow, the wildest scene imaginable followed, the delegates springing to their feet and yelling to the top of their voices, the ladies waving handkerchiefs and banners, while the enthusiasm rolled and surged through the vast audience until everybody seemed carried away with the delirium of the moment. The cheering was renewed when an evergreen scroll bearing the inscription "Hall to the Chief" was seen suspended over the stage, and there was another wild burst of applause, covering several minutes, when a flag was unfurled with Fisk's portrait thereon. During a lull in the uproar some one moved to make the nomination unanimous, and there was another tumultuous outburst, which kept breaking out afresh until the lung power was doubly exhausted.

Fisk was declared the nominee for president. Nominations for vice president followed, and John T. Tanner, of Alabama; George W. Bain, of Kentucky; Dr. John A. Brooks, of Missouri; Sam. Small, of Georgia, and Hon. L. Dahoney were named by their respective states. The nomination of Bain caused great enthusiasm, and the position would have been given him but for his persistent request to be excused, owing to the condition of his health and the demands of his family. Much the same was true of Sam. Small, both he and Bain being pronounced popular in the convention. Messrs. Tanner, Dahoney, Bain and Small persistently insisting that their names be withdrawn, the nomination was given to Dr. Brooks by acclamation. He was accorded a very generous reception as he came forward to express his acknowledgments.

The convention soon after adjourned sine die. The new National committee held a midnight session. Professor Samuel Dickie was continued chairman. James B. Hobbs, of Chicago, one of the $1,000 contributors to the campaign fund, was made secretary. Hon. S. D. Hastings, of Wisconsin, was selected treasurer. The proposition to make Miss Frances Willard, George W. Bain, of Chicago, Professor Hopkins and ex-Governor St. John members-at-large, was defeated.

Gen. Fisk is the son of a blacksmith, and was born in 1825 in Greggsville, Livingston county, New York. The father, Benjamin Fisk, was the military oracle of the town and honestly won the title of captain by drilling the home guards. Before the eyes of Clinton B. Fisk had got fairly used to the light, he was taken to the wildest part of Michigan to live in a log house among 2,500 Pottawatamie Indians. The place where the Fisks settled was called Clinton, in honor of the bouncing boy.

In 1832 the captain died, leaving Mrs. Fisk alone in a half-civilized place with six boys, the eldest being under fourteen. The land was lost, the family broken up and the boys were bound out to learn trades. Clinton went to Deacon Wright, a worthy old farmer, who agreed to give him for his work, when twenty-one, a horse, saddle, bridle and $200 in cash, besides which allowing him to go to school meanwhile for three months a year, for at least four years. The lad labored for the farmer three or four years, studying at odd times, and then secured his release. He next worked at various avocations and made his way into a college in Michigan, but was forced to leave, by failing eyesight, and to enter a store. He advanced rapidly, and married at twenty-one and settled at Coldwater, Mich.

When the war broke out, Mr. Fisk at once enlisted as a private in a St. Louis regiment, where he had been in business since 1858. One year later he was made brigadier general for meritorious services, and in 1865 was brevetted major general. He served in the army of the Tennessee until the fall of Vicksburg, and then in Missouri until the close of the war. Then he was ordered south to carry out the provisions of the Freedmen's bureau. Gen. Fisk about this time founded the famous Fisk university in Tennessee, the home of the jubilee singers and one of the greatest boons to the ignorant and emancipated colored citizens of the south ever given them. The general lost nearly all of his fortune in the war, but soon picked up again by investments in Missouri railroads and real estate.

Dr. John A. Brooks, nominee for vice president, is a graduate of Bethany college, a preacher in the Christian church, and formerly president of Fleming's college, Ky., and a lecturer. He was born in Mason county, Kentucky, on June 3, 1836, of Virginia parents, and has been a temperance advocate from youth and a member of the Prohibition party since 1860. In 1884 he was the Prohibition candidate for governor of Missouri. During the war he sympathized with the south and for a time served in the Confederate army. He now lives in Kansas City.

Will He Worth a Journey to Hear.
New York, June 2.—Unquestionably the great oratorical event of the Republican National convention will be the speech of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, as it was in the Republican convention of 1876, when for the first time he christened Blaine the Plumed Knight. Col. Ingersoll has been invited by the delegates of Illinois—his native state—to present Judge Gresham's innuendo to the Chicago convention, and has agreed to do so. This will be the colonel's first participation in politics for several years, and if Gresham should be nominated he may be expected to take the stump.

Has a Decidedly Thumprish Hue.
New York, June 2.—Justice Maurice J. Power, who came over from Washington on Tuesday with the president, says that the New York delegation will be solid for Thurman for vice president. He has informed all the leaders that it has been settled that Judge Thurman will accept the nomination, which he feels sure will be a unanimous one. Tim. Campbell, who was also one of the presidential party on the trip from Washington, says that he has instructions to go for Thurman, and that they were given by a higher authority than Judge Power. The New York delegation intend to hold a meeting in St. Louis Monday afternoon to pass a resolution favoring Thurman.

PHILADELPHIA, June 2.—The Record says: A new trust has thrust itself to the front. The type foundry have organized a combination known as the Type Founders' Association of the United States, to raise prices, knowing that with a duty of 25 per cent. on type and 30 per cent. on type metal, there can be no fear of foreign competition. The combination has decided to raise prices from 10 to 20 per cent., and has so notified the trade.

MR. AND MRS. CLEVELAND

INVITED TO THE CINCINNATI CENTENNIAL EXPOSITION.

The Delegation of Ladies and Gentlemen From the Queen City Heartily Welcomed at the White House—The Delegation Hopeful—Sheridan's Condition.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The gentlemen of the delegation sent from Cincinnati to invite President Cleveland and wife to attend the opening of the Ohio valley centennial, were received by Mr. Cleveland at 3:30 p. m. Thursday in the Blue room of the White House. The party consisted of President Levi C. Goodale, Congressmen Butterworth, Grosvener and Thompson, Mayor Smith, Maj. King, of Newport, Ky., Theodore Cook, Charles Fleischmann, Frank Alter and Capt. Holloway.

President Goodale bore with him the handsomely illuminated Russian leather covered invitation to the president and Mrs. Cleveland, which he arranged on a tete-a-tete in the Blue room so that all its beauties could have the benefit of whatever light struggled through the windows from the southern sky, then much overcast.

After a few pleasant words had been exchanged Mr. Goodale advanced a step or two and addressed the president in a well worded speech, requesting him and his wife in the name of eleven states to attend the opening of the Ohio valley centennial.

At the conclusion of his remarks Mayor Smith also besought the president to attend, and promising him a cordial reception.

The president replied that he received the invitation with pleasure. "But," said he, "the trouble is there is official duties to be attended to here of such a character as to make it utterly impossible for me to tell, so far in advance, what I shall be able to do on the day named for the opening of the exposition."

Mr. Butterworth added a supplementary plea to the president to accept the invitation not only as a pleasure but a duty to the people of the great states interested in the centennial. Capt. Holloway and Theodore Cook followed in a few remarks supporting the invitation, after which the president shook hands with the delegation and the reception ended.

The delegates are hopeful that President Cleveland will accept.

With chains of love Mrs. Cleveland has caught and bound fast to her heart the ladies of the Cincinnati committee who called on her to invite her to the centennial exposition of the Ohio valley.

Mrs. Cleveland received the Cincinnati ladies in the dainty Blue parlor, the open window of which revealed a bower of roses; a stretch of shaded emerald sward leading southward to the monument and the sparkling Potomac. Mrs. Cleveland wore an exquisite new gown of light, flowered silk.

Mrs. Carlisle introduced Mrs. Alphonso Taft to Mrs. Cleveland, and Mrs. Taft presented the other ladies. Mrs. Cleveland was charmed with her guests. The Cincinnati ladies scintillated in the conversation, and that of Mrs. Cleveland was easy, light, graceful and wholly informal, but it was sparkling as champagne and tonic as the fine exhilarating air of the early morning.

Mrs. Cleveland set out to win the hearts of her guests, and she did it. She talked with the Cincinnati ladies as though they were very old and dear friends.

Mrs. Cleveland said she would be charmed to come to Cincinnati, and every one who heard her say so believed that she meant it, and believed, too, that she would make every effort to accept the invitation. After a chat of half an hour with Mrs. Cleveland, the ladies, escorted by Maj. Butterworth, went upstairs and bearded the president in his den.

He was in a delightful humor, and grew gracious and gallant before the bright sallies which his visitors poured upon him. The ladies completely surrounded him in his office, and he sat on one end of his big table laughing and obattling like a school boy.

During the morning the ladies all called on Mrs. Sherman, and their visit to her was a most charming one, for Mrs. Sherman and her daughter are among the most gracious and accomplished hostesses in the land.

Still Not Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The senate committee on judiciary again considered the appointment of Mr. Fuller to the chief justiceship. No conclusion was reached owing to the fact that information called for from the clerk of the court at Chicago had not arrived.

Mr. Dunlevy, a citizen of Chicago, has preferred charges against Mr. Fuller to the effect that about 1881 the latter and the clerk of the court were jury commissioners, and that Fuller assisted in the selection of a jury which he, at the time, had on the docket for the recovery of lands in Indiana, and that the jury returned a verdict in his favor. The committee on judiciary requested the clerk of the court to make a transcript of the records showing, if true, that Fuller was one of the commissioners who selected the jury that tried his case.

Sheridan Appointed General.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—The president signed the bill reviving the rank of general in the United States army at ten minutes past 3 o'clock, and immediately sent the nomination of Philip Henry Sheridan for the position to the senate. He confirmed the appointment.

Senators Hawley and Marslen called at Gen. Sheridan's residence during the afternoon and handed to Mrs. Sheridan the general's commission as general of the army.

General Sheridan.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—At 1:30 in the afternoon, there had been no change in Gen. Sheridan's condition, but his general condition still justifies the gravest anxiety.

At 2:30 the following bulletin was issued: "No material change has occurred in Gen. Sheridan's condition since the issue of the last bulletin, and certainly no change for the worse. He has been sleeping quietly at intervals for the last three hours."

A Tennessee Family Feud.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., June 2.—For the past three months a deadly feud has existed in Hancock county between the Jones and Green families. A number of men have been killed and crippled on both sides and one of the Jones leader's house burned. The origin of the trouble is an old family feud. Information from that section is that the factions had a fierce battle Wednesday night, in which two more of the Green crowd were killed and a number of the party seriously wounded. The end is not yet, and it is feared a military company will be needed to check the warring factions in their desire to exterminate each other.

A MILLIONAIRE'S WIFE

Attempts to Murder Her Husband's Lawyer in a Chicago Court Room.

CHICAGO, June 2.—A tremendous sensation occurred in Judge Jamieson's court, shortly after 10 o'clock this morning. While the docket was being called Mrs. Meckle L. Rawson was impatiently waiting for the divorce suit of her husband, Banker Rawson, to be called.

Col. H. C. Whitney, her husband's attorney, was sitting at a side table writing, when the court was suddenly started to hear a pistol, and Col. Whitney at one disappeared under the table. The shot was followed by four more in rapid succession, and Mrs. Rawson was seen pursuing Whitney with a Smith & Wesson 38-calibre revolver. Mrs. Rawson succeeded in emptying her revolver at Whitney before she could be captured.

Two of the bullets hit the lawyer, one taking effect below the groin and the other in the left leg. The wound near the right groin will probably be fatal. Judge Jamieson at once ordered Mr. Rawson's arrest, and she was immediately taken to jail.

A STRIKE AND AN ARREST

Results in a Riot in West Virginia—Several Negroes Injured.

BRANWELL, W. Va., June 2.—All the miners in the Blue Stone district went out on a strike, Thursday, for two weeks' pay, and to add to the excitement, a negro was arrested for disorderly conduct. After the arrest, it was rumored that the whites would take him from the guards and lynch him.

At 10 o'clock Thursday night the town was thrown into a violent state of excitement by about one hundred negro miners marching to Blue Stone inn, where the prisoner was under guard, and demanding his release. The guards did not surrender him, whereupon the mob began firing on the building with pistols and a general riot ensued. Several men were shot among the rioters by members of the mob. The whites had organized.

At a late hour the negro mob had dispersed, after several were arrested. More trouble is expected, but owing to the inaccessibility of the place further particulars cannot be had at present.

A YOUNG LADY SUICIDES

And Advises Her Lover to Do Likewise.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 2.—The body of Miss Adele Menard, daughter of Joseph Menard, a prominent citizen, was found floating in the river late yesterday afternoon. Miss Menard passed Monday evening in company with a young man to whom she was betrothed. Before retiring that night Mr. Menard whipped her for some reason not disclosed and the next morning she was missing.

She left two notes, one to her father and the other to her lover. To the former she wrote that she was going to commit suicide by drowning and that she had been driven to the deed by his cruelty. The note addressed to her lover advised him to commit suicide also. Miss Menard's lover has not been seen since her note was delivered to him, and it is believed he has killed himself.

Striking Dock Laborers.

GLADSTONE, Mich., June 2.—The troubles between striking dock laborers who belong to the union and the non-union men who have taken their places are daily becoming more serious, and the aid of state troops may be required to quell the disturbances. At midnight Wednesday night, the marshal and a party of citizens interfered in an attack by the union men upon the new-comers. The strikers in turn attacked the marshal and his supporters savagely, and a fusillade of shots was exchanged. The strikers escaped unharmed, but an officer was bit in the head and is in a critical condition. Yesterday six of the rioters were arrested and placed in jail. Further trouble is expected.

Boiler Explosion Kills Three Men.

DETROIT, June 2.—A special to the News from Wyandotte, Mich., says: About 5:40 o'clock this morning two boilers in the rolling mill of the Eureka iron works blew up, just after the early morning force had gone to work. When the steam had cleared away three men were found under the debris. They were Harry McCloy, night superintendent, whose head was blown off and his body mutilated; Patrick Finn, head crusher, and George Green, head and chest crushed. The first two were dead when taken out, and Green died in twenty minutes. The damage to the mill is small. The cause of the explosion is unknown.

Why He Suicided.

CASTLETON, Vt., June 2.—The suicide of Charles Downer, teller of the Castleton National bank, last winter, was at that time assigned to mental derangement, brought on by overwork. An expert, who has for some days past examined the accounts left by Downer, has discovered a shortage of several thousand dollars, which may reach $15,000, and involve the bank in some embarrassment. Downer's peculations are believed to have extended over a period of a year.

A Broken Axle Causes a Wreck.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., June 2.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the Philadelphia & Reading railway, a few miles outside of this city, last night, in which Brakenan Harrison Wafe was killed; Conductor Everett severely injured and forty box cars loaded with merchandise smashed to pieces. The accident was caused by the breaking of an axle. Wafe leaves a wife and child. The loss to the railroad company will amount to $20,000.

Telephone Company Fined.

ST. LOUIS, June 2.—The Bell Telephone company was a defendant in a case in the police court for violating the ordinance prohibiting telephone companies from charging more than $50 a year for the use of an instrument. Judge Cody held that the ordinance was all right, and fined the telephone company $300.

The New York World says the ticket will be Cleveland and Gray.

ROBERT LINCOLN seems to have sunk out of sight in the turbulent sea of politics.

If Senator Thurman can be induced to accept the second place on the ticket with Cleveland he should be nominated by all means.

TARIFF talk has been resumed in the House of Representatives at Washington under the five-minute rule. The people ought to know all about this great subject by the time Congress, the newspapers and the politicians get through discussing it.

BLAINE's last letter of declination has caused unusual hustling among the various Republican aspirants for the Presidency. Gresham and Sherman are in the lead now, but it seems impossible for their party to unite on any one other than the Plumed Knight.

The Democratic nominee for Lieutenant-Governor of Illinois, Hon. A. J. Bell, is a prominent Labor leader, and will win many votes for the ticket. It is thought his nomination will go far towards wheeling that State into the Democratic column. Besides this the Labor people out that way are said to be particularly pleased with Cleveland's stand on the tariff question.

SOME of the Republicans in Congress are earnestly advocating the clause in Mills Tariff bill making lumber free. Mr. Linde, of Minnesota, in a speech Thursday, declared that it was inconsistent to encourage the destruction of our forests by maintaining a duty on foreign lumber while at the same time we were giving away immense bodies of land under the Timber-Culture law. He declared that the Government had given much more in value in lands under the Timber-Culture act than it has derived from tariff on lumber.

"There are," says the Louisville Times, invested in manufacturing enterprises in this country the sum of $2,790,223,506, of which amount six States—Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Ohio—have $1,706,000,000, and the rate of taxation levied upon the consumers of other States in order to 'protect' the capitalists of these six States from European paupers amounts to an average of 47.10 per cent. upon the gross importation of merchandise. At this rate it will not take many more years for the Northeast to own the country, and it is a knowledge of that fact that has occasioned all this tariff row in Congress."

Plain Talk From Tourgee.

Albion W. Tourgee is one of the noted authors of the country. He may not be the best posted person on the political situation at present to be found, but all the same it must be acknowledged he tells nothing but plain facts in the following which is clipped from a letter he recently wrote to a Chicago paper:

Not only is the Democratic party in power, but it must be admitted that no serious national or financial crisis has resulted from their ascendancy, and if they are now chargeable with a definite attempt to lull the principle of protection to our industries, we must recall that they were charged with a fixed purpose to wholly obliterate it from our national policy in 1881. It was a stock argument of that campaign that financial ruin and disaster were sure to follow hard upon the heels of Democratic success. These did not come, and the failure of such predictions mutually lessens the apprehensions with which the average voter regards calumnious prophecies.

Personal.

Mrs. Mattie Taggle, of Mayslick neighborhood, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Will Gibson.

Master Buckner Wall left a few days ago for Erlanger on a visit to his grandmother.

The Misses Fox, of Mayslick, Ky., are the guests of Miss Lillian Metcalfe.—Lexington Press.

Miss Bessie Welch, of St. Joe, Mo., arrived last evening on a visit to her grandfather Circuit Clerk Ben D. Parry.

Misses Emma Allison, of "Sunny Bank," and Mae Marshall, of "Cottage Cliff," are visiting Miss Iva Dee Allen at Millersburg.

Miss Anna Frazee, who has been attending Daughters' College, Harrodsburg, stopped at Lexington yesterday to spend a few days with friends.

Editor Hawthorne Hill, of the Maysville Republican, paid us a call Wednesday afternoon, while en route for Frankfort.—Bourbon News.

Misses Alma Osborne, Retta Smoot, Lottie Perrine, Lillie Smoot and Ella Downing returned yesterday from Daughters' College, Harrodsburg. They were accompanied home by Mrs. W. P. Smoot, who attended the commencement exercises.

THE "KENTUCKY GATE."

An Important Invention by One of the Leading Farmers of Mason County.

The "Kentucky Gate" hung in the rear of Owens, Mitchell & Co.'s hardware store, mention of which was made several days since, is attracting considerable attention. In all of its features it materially differs from the gate in common use. The gate frame, hinge, and latch are all novel, yet so simple and perfect in their construction that they impress one immediately as being eminently practicable. In many respects it is far superior to the farm gates in common use. It entirely overcomes sag; it is a complete bar against stock, they can not open or unhinge it; it is strikingly neat and ornamental; it is so simple in construction any farmer can frame it; and it is extremely durable, we believe thrice as durable as the ordinary gate. The important consideration to the farmer is that, with all of its points of superiority, it costs no more than a good ordinary gate.

The inventor, Mr. J. B. Holton of Washington, is one of our own citizens; and a leading farmer of the county and the invention has grown out of his enterprise as such. While it was originally designed for his own use its good qualities and light costs led him to patent it in order that it might become more generally introduced. He should be commended for so doing. The inventors and the patent laws of our government have done much to develop and quicken the resources of our country. It is gratifying to notice in the reports of patents issued by the government from time to time that Kentucky within the last few years is fairly represented, an evidence that her people are looking more to intellect for their future support, development, and growth, and not relying so much upon manual labor and brute force. Encourage all inventors, remembering Franklin, Whitney, Fulton, Jethro Wood, Blanchard, McCormick, Goodyear, Morse, Howe, Bell, Eads and many others to whom the world, and particularly our country, is so greatly indebted.

Off on a Pleasure Trip.

The following party left on the elegant steamer Big Sandy this morning on a pleasure trip to Pomeroy. They will return Tuesday morning:

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. W. LaRue Thomas, Mrs. Mary T. Cox, Misses Ida and Bettie Coons, Anna Stockton, Emma Campbell, Bessie Johnson, Sophia Albert, Katie Blatterman, and Messrs. Collins Blatterman, George Rogers, Lee Browning, John Adamson, George Keith, Ed Martin and Hal Curran.

The Sardis Select and Graded School will close, with the following programme, June 7th, 8th and 9th evenings:

First evening, Hon. O. S. Deming will lecture the school and citizens at the M. E. Church, subject, "Think." Judge Deming is a deep thinker, and will, no doubt, give an able lecture. Admission free.

On the 8th and 9th evenings two very interesting entertainments will be given by the school at "Arcade Hall." Patrons admitted free. Each evening's exercises begin at 7:30.

CURE OF CANCER and ULCERS.

Judge T. C. McLendon writes to the Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga., under date of February 14, 1888: "About three years ago, Jerry Bradley, a colored man, had a cancerous sore on his face, near the right eye. It caused him great deal of pain, and he lost the sight of the eye, but was finally cured of the cancer by the use of Swift's Specific. This cure is well known in Wilkes Co., Ga., where he lived (near Danbury), and of this case, I myself, had personal knowledge."

Mr. L. Cox, of Arkabutla, Tate Co., Miss., writes, February 22, 1888: "I suffered a great deal from old ulcers for six years. Your medicine was recommended to me, and after using six bottles, I was completely cured. I never saw its equal as a Blood Purifier. My neighbors will use no other. Your medicine does even more than you claim for it. I have known it to cure cases which were thought to be hopeless. It is the best medicine made."

Mrs. A. M. Goldsmith, No. 674 Warren St., Brooklyn, N. Y., writes, February 22, 1888: "I commenced using S. S. S. about three years ago. I had suffered with a sore throat for over a year, when I commenced using your remedy. I used a great many other remedies with no good results. My little girl, also, had sore fingers; it commenced from the quick, and then the nails would come off. We doctored her for over two years, and when I commenced using S. S. S. I thought I would see what it would do for her. I am thankful to say that it entirely cured her. It is the best remedy I know of for the blood. I really believe it was the means of saving my life. The doctor told me I had a throat disease similar to General Grant's. I cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from disordered blood. I use it now as a tonic whenever I think I need it."

Mr. B. F. George, Milford P. O., Ellis Co., Texas, writes: "I had a cancerous wart or mole on my eyelid, as large as the end of my thumb, which had the appearance of cancer, causing me much pain and inflammation, from which I suffered a long time. Seeing the S. S. S. advertised I commenced using it, and after the use of a few bottles the sore dropped out, my cancer was cured, and I was entirely relieved."

Mr. G. W. Pettis, of Albia, S. C., writes: "I was a sufferer from cancer of the breast, and had been under the treatment of three physicians, but it did me no good. It was so bad that I had to stop work. After taking a course of S. S. S. I was entirely cured. I treated on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. Tux Swift Specific Co., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga."

A GREAT UNLOADING SALE!

Our stock is immense, and we have concluded not to wait, as formerly, to reduce, but begin right now, while you need the goods, to make a clean sweep, at prices that will at once reduce to the proper size our enormous stock. It is hardly possible to quote in our limited space prices to show what we mean by a CUT SALE, but we assure you IT WILL BE MONEY IN YOUR POCKET if you will just step in and see. We mean to make this sale the talk of the entire community, and will cause the oldest buyers of Clothing to wonder how the goods can be gotten up as low as we sell them. We want you all to know they are not gotten up as low as we offer them, but this sale is regardless of cost, and our intention is to make a record sale as well as a slaughter sale. To give you an idea of what we mean we will just mention that we will sell no house in the United States having ever before offered these goods for less than from $7.50 to $10. We reserve nothing in this sale, but will, from time to time, quote prices that will pulverize competition and delight, as well as surprise, all buyers.

A Man's Blue or Brown Flannel Suit For $5,

FRENCHMEN PLEASED.

M. GOBLET'S REPLY TO THE SPEECH OF HERR TISZA

Received With Satisfaction By His Countrymen—The Pope to Write a Friendly Letter to the Irish Bishops—Frederick Remond to Pottsdam—Foreign.

LONDON, June 2.—M. Goblet's speech in the French chamber of deputies Thursday, which he made in reply to an interpellation regarding the Tisza incident, has been received by his countrymen with great satisfaction. He is felt to have stated France's position with accuracy and force.

While he denounced the statements made by Von Tisza as unwarranted and declared that he had no right to utter them, he said that France was forced to accept the deprecatory declarations of Count Kalnoky and Premier Tisza's as sincere. The keynote of the speech lay in the implied warning that although the government would continue to bear in silence the disagreeableness of unimportant incidents like the one under discussion.

Yet where necessary, steps would be taken to demand an apology, and that behind the demand lay the power to back it up.

Goblet's words, while moderate and indicating a pacific policy, are intended to assure the war party that their importance of France will not be allowed to be minimized or her interests depreciated. And this is precisely the position the government assumes. Carnot is a man of peace, and the government desires no war, but M. Goblet gave just a hint of a drawn line, beyond which no one would be allowed to go.

France, hardly over the Boulanger scare, now is having a hard time over the coming exhibition. England refuses official recognition, Germany and Austria decline to take part, and now Hungary withdraws. The ministry, however, hail with delight a trouble which assails them from outside. It serves to draw attention away from internal alarms and attracts to them the sympathy of the country.

The politically wise say that Boulanger is simply resting for the present until stronger, and then will break out afresh and swamp the government. The Boulangerists are content to let things go on as they are for the present, awaiting the day when their leader shall give the word to step in and administer affairs.

Oil on the Troubled Waters.

DUBLIN, June 2.—The Irish Catholic archbishops have issued an address declaring that the pope's decree relative to Irish affairs does not interfere with politics. They warn the people and the league leaders against speaking with irreverence of the pope, who has assured them that he does not intend to injure the Irish National movement, but desires to remove the obstacles in way. United Ireland praises the declaration.

Freeman's Journal, commenting upon the bishops' resolution, says:

"The Irish hierarchy have received a message from the Roman pontiff himself, not like the one which was heralded by the enemies of Ireland, but one blessing the Irish people and the National movement. The pope now concedes the judgment of the Irish in the political domain."

A hundred farmers of Kerry, encouraged by the papal decree, have begun to buy turf from the bog at Alahog, belonging to Lord Hursey, who has been rigidly boycotted for four years.

The outcome of the matter may be safely predicted now. Only a portion of the Irish National leaders have at any time approved of the plan of campaign, and it was practically doomed before the issue of the rescript. The pope has foreseen that so soon as the Tory government could make concessions to the Irish without incurring the charge of weakness, that is of being forced to do it, it would do so, and so also would the landlords individually make abatement of rents in order to prevent a recurrence of such modes of political warfare as the plan of campaign. The result would be greatly to the immediate advantage of the tenantry, while the National movement would stand virtually unaffected. In fact, the pope has furnished the National party with the means of getting rid of the plan of campaign which had already greatly injured the National cause.

It is announced in Rome that the pope will send a friendly and comforting letter to the Irish bishops, expressive of his constant purpose to abstain from anything which could in the least check the true interests of the Irish National movement.

The Emperor at Pottsdam Now.

BERLIN, June 2.—The Emperor Frederick started for Pottsdam to-day on the yacht Alexandria. The weather was showery. On boarding the yacht the emperor immediately entered the cabin where he remained until the departure of the vessel. Large crowds assembled to witness his departure and enthusiastically cheered him. The yacht was beautifully decorated with flowers.

At Spandau several bands, which had assembled on the landing, played the National hymn as the yacht passed. The emperor bowed his acknowledgments from the cabin window, while the empress waved her handkerchief from the deck. The yacht reached Pottsdam at 12:40 o'clock. The emperor was none the worse for the trip. He appeared bright and slightly stronger. His temperature was normal.

Thursday evening the empress and princesses visited the Heyl orphanage and distributed sweetmeats among the children.

The empress on the occasion of her visit to the flooded district, said in a conversation with the burgomaster of Luneberg: "The anti-Semitic agitation is painful to my feelings and to those of my husband."

The emperor and empress have written to the authorities of Charlottenburg expressing their thanks for the proofs of sympathy and kindness afforded them by the citizens of that place.

Count Von Stolberg-Wernigerode will resign his office of grand chamberlain, and will be succeeded by Admiral Stosch. The admiral is not on the most friendly terms with Prince Bismarck.

Warned to Leave.

POMEROY, O., June 2.—It has leaked out that a man living on Leading Creek, three miles back of Middleport, by the name of Jacob Warner, was called to his door Monday night by unknown parties, taken out and lashed to a tree and severely whipped, then tarred from head to foot, ducked in the creek, and given notice to leave the county in twenty days. The cause for these extreme measures, according to reports, is the general cussedness of Warner.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

Topics of the Times Given in a terse and Spicy Manner.

Ripley, O. has a mad dog scare. The public debt was reduced $4,000,000 in May.

Samuel Clark slew his sister-in-law at Sharon, Pa.

A freight wreck on the Southern Pacific coast $100,000.

Pacific coast Democrats want Thurman for vice president.

Staley's "She" company went to pieces at Des Moines, Iowa.

Tar Heel Democrats nominated D. G. Fowle for governor.

Bragg's furniture factory burned at Baltimore. Loss $50,000.

A train-load of Washington correspondents are en route to St. Louis.

Democrats nominated H. L. McCray for common pleas judge at Ashland, O.

The shortage in the defunct Maritime bank of St. John, N. B., is about $1,300,000.

James Caylor was crushed to death by a caving embankment at Mineral Point, O.

Charles H. Putnam, well known citizen of Xenia, O., died Tuesday at Oakland, Cal.

A. S. Herr was arrested at Tiffin, O., on a charge of sending obscene literature through the mail.

The general Lutheran synod of Ohio, Pennsylvania and West Virginia is in session at Youngstown, O.

Assessors' returns show that Crawford county has eighty-nine saloons. Last year they numbered 109.

A. J. Winquest, of Holdrege, Neb., shot and killed a barkeeper who refused him liquor, then killed himself.

Peter Kimball, of Louisville, settled the domestic troubles of his daughter by shooting her husband, Mike Eddy.

Circleville Republicans have made themselves up into a political club warranted to knock the opposite party silly in one round.

Col. Aaron K. Dunkel, ex-state senator and ex-secretary of internal affairs, died at his residence in Philadelphia, aged fifty-one years.

Chicago Catholics in mass meeting, Thursday night, passed resolutions protesting against the interference of the pope in Irish politics.

Johnnie Miles, aged twenty, of Philadelphia, forged his mother's name for $4,000, got the money and fled with a seventeen-year-old girl.

The appellate court has reserved the order in the Rawson divorce case in Chicago, allowing Mrs. Meekie L. Rawson temporary alimony and solicitors' fees.

Life in Coshocton has a tendency to make poor mortals weary. William Beam left there via tight rope, which makes seven suicides in the past six months.

An assault and battery case at Lancaster, O., was tried by telephone. The accusation that both sides were guilty of wire-working in their own interest could not be denied.

Mrs. Carrie Harrington, wife of a well-to-do druggist of Chicago, committed suicide by pouring oil on her clothing and then setting fire to it. She had been in ill health for some time.

The general synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church reaffirmed their conviction that the constitution of the United States is a compact to administer the government without reference to Christ or the Christian religion.

The Methodist Episcopal conference in New York adjourned sine die after approving the union of Methodist churches in Japan. The conference cost $70,000 for the board and traveling expenses of the delegates and $7,500 for the rental of the Metropolitan opera house.

By arrangement with the leaders on both sides of congress, Col. William G. Terrell, of New York, has prepared a volume entitled "An Appeal to the American People as a Jury," in which will be given authorized and specially revised versions of the principal speeches made in congress for and against the Mills bill.

The trouble with river pirates at Musick's Landing, Missouri, has subsided, and Jacob and John Kuhn, Henry Goerken and another have surrendered. The body of Justice of the Peace Otto Ohlfieldt was found near Portage, St. Charles county, riddled with bullets. Henry Beckman, the boatman, is in a worse condition than at first reported.

William Tanner, of Cleveland, became a convert to Christian science, and his first act of belief was to pile his clothes up and attempt to burn them. Being prevented from this, he requested his lady to turn the boarders away and "live on love." She preferred to put her trust in high priced groceries and misfit clothing stores, and had William locked up on a charge of insanity.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Cooler; light to fresh northerly winds; fair weather.

Philadelphia Saloons.

New York, June 2.—A special to the Tribune from Philadelphia says: At 12 o'clock Thursday night over four thousand liquor stores were closed up for good in this city. In order to carry out the law as laid down by the Brooks bill the police force was doubled at midnight, and tavernkeepers who open after that hour will be brought to Central station to answer. All the "knocked out" liquor sellers did a big business Thursday, and continued to sell and give liquor away up to the last moment. At present, instead of having over four thousand rum shops open in Philadelphia, there is but 1,340.
